THE "TREATY PORTS OF CHINA & JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUERIES" ON CHINA AND JAPAN."

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS. (From the "Strasts Times," July 27, 1868.) Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention his again been balled to the subject by the receipta of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers.'s We allude to Notes and Queries on thing and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail. newspaper: This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour. The publication is altogether a very in seresting one, and wishing it every success we commend it to the attention and support four readers : , egg sic. (4)

From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868. We acknowledge with thanks the receipt the numbers for the current year of Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of Chins and Japan " are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its inlerest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and ental antiquities. The gold coins were mostly of ancient date, many bearing the superscription of Alexander I and some even that of Catherine II, a novel sight, indeed, in an empire so thoroughly drained of specie. The whole scene formed such a tablean as the oldest man present, in all probability, had never before gazed upon and the earliest estimate (probably an exacgerated one) rates the tressure as high as ten millions of roubles considerably over a million sterling. Maxim Plotitisin was instantly placed under police surveillance, and forbidden to go beyond the walls of his house without special permission. The more direct accusations of the informer Bolotin having been thus startlingly confirmed, the authorities now called apon him to explain and particularise the mysterions invendoes which he had thrown out against Plotitizin on his first appearance befor them. This was accordingly done; and the substance of his allegations, as officially reported, appears to be somewhat as fol lows :- That Maxim Plotitizin is one of th principal leaders and supporters of a se cret but very extensive sect, the ramifical tions of which have extended as far west at Moscow. The prevailing doctrine of these men (who number in their ranks some of the richest merchants and of the east central district) is apparent port and soul. the practice of these singular schiamatics is worth, which has so long been the favour-
